Summer Junior Ranger Program

Registration is now open for the Summer Junior Ranger program at George Washington Carver National Monument. This fun program is geared for girls and boys from 10 to 12 years of age. The dates for this year's Summer Junior Ranger program are June 8th, June 15th, and June 22nd from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Participants are encouraged to attend all three sessions.

Several exciting activities are planned to help Junior Rangers explore park grounds while learning more about the National Park Service and its role in preserving the legacy of George Washington Carver. Planned activities for this year's participants include learning the basics of archeology, exploring the importance of water quality, researching and reenacting an important event in the life of George Washington Carver, and much more. To conclude their experience, Summer Junior Rangers will participate in a presentation demonstrating what they have learned, followed by an awards ceremony.

Enrollment is limited and reservations are required for this free program. Registration may be completed in a number of ways:
